Important Notices

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the Insurer.

It is important that all information contained in this proposal is understood by you and is correct, as you will be bound by your answers and by the information provided by you in this proposal. You should obtain advice before you sign this proposal if you do not properly understand any part of it.

Your duty of disclosure continues after the proposal has been completed up until the contract of insurance is entered into.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to avoid the contract from its beginning.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning, to retain any premium that you have paid for this contract of insurance.

Claims Made Contract

Subject to its terms and conditions the policy will cover your legal liability for any claim:

- first made against you during the policy period; resulting from any circumstance of which you become aware during the policy period which may give rise to a future claim against you provided you immediately inform us in writing of such circumstances within the policy period.

The Policy will not cover your legal liability resulting from any claim, matter, occurrence or circumstance arising from any act, error or omission committed or alleged to have been committed of which you were aware before commencement of the policy period.

Change of Risk or Circumstances

You should advise the Insurer as soon as practicable of any change to your normal business as disclosed in the proposal.

Subrogation

Where you have agreed with another person or company, who would otherwise be liable to compensate you for any loss or damage which is covered by the policy, that you will not seek to recover such loss or damage from that person, the Insurer will not cover you, to the extent permitted by law, for such loss or damage.
